1 Our 3 dealbreakers

If a home has one of these, it is a firm no, even if everything else is perfect.

e.g. Busy main road out front

2.

e.g. Commute over 45 minutes

3.

e.g. Major foundation or water issues

Pros & cons: why are these dealbreakers for our family?

2 Our 3 neighborhood requirements

What the area around your home needs: work, school, errands and community.

1.

e.g. Within a specific school district

2.

e.g. Near a masjid or place of worship

3.

e.g. Close to parks or a commuter rail stop

Towns or areas we are considering

Pros & cons: what trade-offs would we make on location?

3 Our 3 must-haves inside the home

What the house needs so it truly works for your family every day.

1.
e.g. At least 4 bedrooms 2.
e.g. A first-floor bedroom and full bath 3.
e.g. An open kitchen for family gatherings

Pros & cons: how did we decide on these? Who needs what, and why?

4 Our 3 nice-to-haves

These would make you smile, but you could live without them or add them later.

e.g. A finished basement 2.
e.g. A fenced backyard
3.
e.g. A prayer room or home office

Pros & cons: which nice-to-have would we give up first?

5 Bringing it together

Rank what matters most (1 = most important, 5 = least)

Price & payment	Location	Size & layout	Move-in ready	Outdoor space
--------------------------------------	-------------------------------	------------------------------------	------------------------------------	------------------------------------

Where do family members see things differently?

Interested in Sharia-compliant, interest-free financing?

☐ Yes, tell me more ☐ No, thank you ☐ Not sure yet
